

If a LPFM broadcaster providing other programming were to displace KLOVE, I would be terribly disappointed. KLOVE serves me as a local resident. KLOVE is unique in what it offers the community. I greatly appreciate listening to KLOVE without paid commercials and thoroughly enjoy the music, Christian information and ministry they provide to me on a daily basis through the local station. I would be very heart broken to have the local KLOVE station taken away.